TO Live would like to acknowledge Tkaronto, which is a Mohawk word meaning the place in the water where the trees are standing.

We live and work on the traditional territory of Haudenosaunee-speaking nations, including the Huron-Wendat, Seneca, and Mohawk. Haudenosaunee-speaking nations have been here since time immemorial, and were more recently joined by the Mississaugas of the Credit.

This place has many Indigenous ports, including where the Humber and Rouge rivers meet other waterways such as Lake Ontario. Ancient longhouses—typical Haudenosaunee housing structures—have been found along both these rivers and in the north of Toronto near modern-day York University. This territory is covered by the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee (Six Nations) Confederacy and the Anishnaabe (Ojibwe) and allied nations to peaceably share and care for the lands and the relationships around the Great Lakes.

What this means is that by living and working here, we all have a responsibility to the environment and to each other, to treat each other and the environment with peace and respect. This means we have responsibilities to honour, renew, and consistently uphold the values and relationships outlined in the ancient agreements.

Today, Toronto is home to Indigenous peoples and settlers from around the world. Let us all come together in an atmosphere of respect and peace to do good work together with good minds. Let's start building stronger and healthier relationships with each other and the spaces we inhabit in Tkaronto, Ontario, Kanata.

Let's hold our minds together in kindness.

Nia:wen. Thank you.

Welcome letter from TO Live

Welcome,

The New York Times called Mark Morris “the most successful and influential choreographer alive, and indisputably the most musical,” and the Mark Morris Dance Group is one of the most revered and highly celebrated modern dance companies in the world.

For Morris, it always starts with the music. With The Look of Love, his first major evening-length work since his Beatles-inspired hit Pepperland, presented here at Meridian Hall in 2018, he has again enlisted the considerable talent of Ethan Iverson for the musical arrangements you will hear performed live tonight by the breathtaking singer Marcy Harriell.

The Look of Love is the first of our dance presentations in 2024 as we remain committed to bringing the best of Canadian and international dance to you, our appreciative and enthusiastic audience.

Next, TO Live presents Carmen from Spain’s Compañía Nacional de Danza (February 2 to 3), one of Europe’s most exciting ballet companies. It will be making its Toronto debut with this award-winning new interpretation by choreographer Johan Inger of the much-loved story.

Following Carmen, we present Message In A Bottle (March 20 to 23), inspired by the iconic hits and poetic lyrics of 17-time Grammy Award-winning artist Sting. Produced by Sadler’s Wells, London’s premiere dance house, it’s a spectacular new dance-theatre show from five-time Olivier Award nominee Kate Prince that offers a story of hope amid the human tragedy of suffering and displacement in a war-torn world.

In addition to these three stellar international productions, we are also proud to present Kaha:wī Dance Theatre’s SKÉN:NEN. The theatrical premiere of the multimedia work from one of Canada’s most acclaimed artists, Santee Smith, will be presented at the St. Lawrence Centre for the Art’s Bluma Appel Theatre (May 9 to 11). This work is designed for all ages, but the season includes two special school performances. Students who attend will also participate in accompanying workshops that delve into the work’s key themes: the impact of climate catastrophe and the hopeful message that Indigenous beliefs in balance and peace can offer restoration.

This spring we’re even presenting a show at a new venue for us, the Leaside Memorial Community Gardens, where we’ll bring you Murmuration in partnership with our friends at Fall for Dance North and the artists, Le Patin Libre (April 25 to 28). Montreal-based Le Patin Libre is making a name for itself the world over with its innovative and exhilarating reimagination of contemporary dance on ice.

You can find everything you need to know and more at tolive.com, but for now, please sit back and enjoy this evening’s performance of The Look of Love.

Thank you,

The Mark Morris Dance Group was formed in 1980 and gave its first performance that year in New York City. The company's touring schedule steadily expanded to include cities in the United States and around the world, and in 1986 it made its first national television program for the PBS series Dance in America. In 1988, MMDG was invited to become the national dance company of Belgium and spent three years in residence at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels. The Dance Group returned to the United States in 1991 as one of the world's leading dance companies. Based in Brooklyn, New York, MMDG maintains strong ties to presenters in several cities around the world, most notably to its west coast home, Cal Performances in Berkeley, California, and its midwest home, the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

In New York, the company has performed at New York City Center's Fall for Dance Festival, regularly performs at Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts' Mostly Mozart and White Light Festivals, and collaborates yearly with BAM on performances and master classes. From the company's many London seasons, it has received two Laurence Olivier Awards and a Critics' Circle Dance Award for best foreign dance company.

Reflecting Morris' commitment to live music, the Dance Group has featured live musicians in every performance since the formation of the MMDG Music Ensemble in 1996. MMDG regularly collaborates with renowned musicians, including cellist Yo-Yo Ma, pianist Emanuel Ax, mezzo-soprano Stephanie Blythe, and jazz pianist

Ethan Iverson, as well as leading orchestras and opera companies, including the Metropolitan Opera, English National Opera, and the London Symphony Orchestra.

MMDG frequently works with distinguished artists and designers, including painters Robert Bordo and the late Howard Hodgkin, set designers Adrienne Lobel and Allen Moyer, costume designers Isaac Mizrahi and the late Martin Pakledinaz, and many others. MMDG's film and television projects include Dido and Aeneas, The Hard Nut, Falling Down Stairs, two documentaries for the U.K.'s South Bank Show, and PBS' Live from Lincoln Center. In 2015, Morris' signature work L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato had its national television premiere on PBS' Great Performances. While on tour the Dance Group partners with local cultural institutions and community organizations to present arts and humanities-based activities for people of all ages and abilities.

Burt Bacharach

Burt Bacharach (1928-2023) was one of the world's most acclaimed, award-winning composer/songwriters. His music is as diverse as his audiences, spanning generations and continents, as he is celebrated as both a pop culture icon and one of the world's greatest contemporary composers. Bacharach's credits read like the world's favourite radio stations' playlist: "Alfie," "Arthur's Theme," "Close To You," "What The World Needs Now Is Love," and "Wishin' And Hopin'" are among just the 48 top-10 hits and nine number-one songs.

Bacharach and Hal David were the recipients of the 2012 Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song. The prize is awarded to musicians whose lifetime contributions in the field of popular song exemplify the standard of excellence associated with the Gershwins. Bacharach and David received the Library's Gershwin Medal in May 2012. Bacharach's memoir, Anyone Who Had a Heart, was released in May 2013. For the first time in his long and astonishing career, Bacharach told his story of love, heartbreak, success, failure, and unbridled ambition in the book, which is named after one of many songs Bacharach and David wrote for Dionne Warwick.

Bacharach composed his first film score in 16 years for John Asher's autism-based drama film Po, which tells the story of a recently widowed father struggling to raise his 10-year-old son who has autism. Bacharach and Daniel Tashian released two new songs called "Moon Over Wichita" and "Heartbreak Storms" via Big Yellow Dog Music in April 2022. The songs are a continuation of their Grammy-nominated Blue Umbrella EP, released in 2020, and Blue Umbrella (The Complete Recordings), which was released in 2021 and featured four never-before-heard songs. Bacharach and Steven Sater's Some Lovers, featuring vocal performances from some of Broadway's most beloved costars, was released in 2021 and nominated for a Grammy Award for best musical theatre album.

Hal David

Hal David (1921-2012) is known for his award-winning lyrics that have been featured in films, Broadway shows, and music charts throughout his career. Honored through many Grammys, the NARM Presidential Award, and more, he is most known for his collaborations with composer Burt Bacharach whom he met in 1957. The two wrote their first hit, “The Story of My Life,” and then continued to write iconic American pop songs throughout the 1960s and 70s. In 2012, David and Burt Bacharach received the Gershwin Prize for Popular Song.

But the duo was not just known for the pop songs they created; they also wrote for movies, four of their songs being nominated for Academy Awards: “What’s New, Pussycat?,” “Alfie,” “The Look of Love,” and “Raindrops Keep Fallin’ on My Head.” “Raindrops Keep Fallin’ on My Head” also won an Oscar in 1970. Lincoln College bestowed a doctor of music degree on David for his contribution to American music. In October of 2007, David received an honorary degree from the Five Towns College in Long Island; the school also named their new music library building after him. David is a member of the Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame and was the first non-British person to receive the Ivor Novello Award from the British Performing Rights Society.

Ethan Iverson
Arranger

Ethan Iverson first came to international prominence as a founding member of The Bad Plus, a game-changing collective with Reid Anderson and David King. The New York Times called TBP “Better than anyone at melding the sensibilities of post-60s’ jazz and indie rock.” During his 17-year tenure, TBP performed in venues as diverse as the Village Vanguard, Carnegie Hall, and Bonnaroo; collaborated with Joshua Redman, Bill Frisell, and the Mark Morris Dance Group; and created a faithful arrangement of Igor Stravinsky’s The Rite of Spring and a radical reinvention of Ornette Coleman’s Science Fiction.

Since leaving TBP, Iverson has kept busy. In 2017, he co-curated a major centennial celebration of Thelonious Monk at Duke University and premiered the evening-length Pepperland with the Mark Morris Dance Group. In 2018, he premiered an original piano concerto with the American Composers Orchestra and released a duo album of new compositions with Mark Turner on ECM. In 2019, he released Common Practice with Tom Harrell on ECM, standards tracked live at the Village Vanguard. In 2021, he released the big band work Bud Powell in the 21st Century and was featured on the March cover of DownBeat. In 2022, he released Every Note is True on Blue Note records, an album of original music with Larry Grenadier and Jack DeJohnette.

Iverson has also been in the critically acclaimed Billy Hart Quartet for well over a decade and occasionally performs with elder statesmen like Albert “Tootie” Heath or Ron Carter, or collaborates with noted classical musicians like Miranda Cuckson and Mark Padmore. For almost 20 years, Iverson’s website Do the Math has been a repository of musician-to-musician interviews and analysis. Time Out New York selected Iverson as one of 25 essential New York jazz icons: “Perhaps NYC’s most thoughtful and passionate student of jazz tradition—the most admirable sort of artist-scholar.” Iverson has also published articles about music in The New Yorker, NPR, The Nation, and JazzTimes.

Hailed by The New York Times as “invaluable” and “central to Morris’ music,” he was appointed music director in 2013.

Marcy Harriell

Lead vocals

Marcy Harriell is a singer, actress, and designer. Music was as mandatory as air for the daughter of a truck-driving trumpeter and a gardening artist. In her childhood home, she delighted in drilling arias while jazz greats played in the background. Her ability to passionately embrace diverse vocal styles has made her a standout in New York theatre. Jumping lithely among opera, rock, jazz, and R&B, The New York Times recently hailed her as a vocalist who “demolishes the furious torch song” with a “rafter rattling intensity.” Broadway star turns include Tony Award-winning musicals In the Heights, Rent, and her nightly showstopping performance in Lennon, where the New York Post declared this “wildcat kitten” a “star in the making.”

Throughout her career, she has had the honour to work with many industry legends: Stephen Sondheim, who guided her performance of Marta in Company at Lincoln Center and the Kennedy Center; Athol Fugard, who directed her in the world premiere of his play Sorrows & Rejoicings; Jerome Robbins and Arthur Laurents, under whose masterful supervision Harriell deepened the role of Maria in West Side Story. “Superfriend” Lin-Manuel Miranda recruited her to record early demos for Disney’s Moana, tapping Harriell’s emotional interpretations for the soundtrack. Enamored by another interpretation, Quentin Tarantino wrote the role of “Marcy” for her in his film Death Proof.

On the small screen, Harriell has been a series regular on NBC’s Ed; HBO’s Nurse Jackie; CBS’s Queens Supreme; and has guest starred in many episodics, including Manifest, NCIS, Law & Order, and Search Party. When she’s not onstage, onscreen, or in-studio, Harriell takes a happy audience on a colorful ride alongside her husband Rob in the hit YouTube series @TheHandmadeHarriells, creating couture garments for everyday life. In fact, she’ll be wearing one of her creations tonight.
